Mrs. Isaac joined SDV in 2008. Since that time she has focused her practice in complex insurance coverage litigation in the areas of construction defect claims, property damage and bodily claims, environmental liability, commercial general liability coverage, workers compensation Part B coverage and title insurance. Mrs. Isaac represents clients in a variety of fields, including construction, medical professionals, corporations and banking institutions advocating for the recovery of insurance policy assets.

Prior to joining SDV, Mrs. Isaac worked for an insurance defense firm in Stamford, CT, concentrating in the areas of medical malpractice, health law, product liability and premises litigation.
