

Education: Sacred Heart University, Fairfield, Connecticut 1979
B.A. in English
A.S. in Paralegal Studies

Brown University 1982
M.A. in English

Since joining Saxe Doernberger & Vita, P.C. in February 2007, Ms. Richmond has provided paralegal support focused on insurance coverage disputes involving property damage, personal injury, workers' compensation, hospital liability, licensing contracts, and construction contracts. Her experience in complex commercial litigation management and support includes initial case review, preparation of and review of discovery materials, large-case document management, drafting of pleadings, interrogatories, and discovery responses, and preparation for and attendance at mediations and trials.

Before starting at Saxe Doernberger & Vita, P.C., Ms. Richmond worked as a paralegal in the New Haven area for 25 years, specializing in complex commercial litigation and real estate.

