Tracy Alan Saxe is a skilled commercial litigator with more than 25 years of experience in insurance coverage issues. Since 1990, he has focused his practice on insurance coverage issues, disputes, litigation, and trials on behalf of policyholders, handling cases involving coverage for comprehensive general liability, directors & officers, professional liability, builders risk, subguard, first party property damage, additional insured and business interruption claims. Mr. Saxe has handled cases involving coverage for construction defects, completed operations, product liability, property damage and bodily injury related to mold and asbestos, bodily injury related to construction, “sick building” syndrome, environmental claims, business interruption, employment disputes, patent infringement, contempt, RICO, unfair practices, breach of fiduciary duty, bad faith and professional malpractice. Mr. Saxe is well versed in issues relating to late notice, allocation, subrogation, contribution, indemnification and the duty to defend.

Mr. Saxe was a principal at the law firm of Sachs, Berman, Rashba & Shure, P.C. from 1987 to 1994. He joined that firm following four years as an associate with Wofsey, Rosen, Kweskin & Kuriansky in Stamford, Connecticut. He left in 1994 to open the Connecticut office of Anderson, Kill, Olick & Oshinsky, a firm specializing in insurance coverage on behalf of policyholders. In 1996, Mr. Saxe founded Saxe Doernberger & Vita, P.C.

Mr. Saxe has successfully tried numerous jury and court trials in state and federal courts, has litigated cases before the federal, state trial and appellate courts in Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Maryland, Massachusetts, California, Washington State, Texas, Florida, Delaware, Indiana and Michigan and has successfully mediated and arbitrated many disputes. Mr. Saxe has been an Adjunct Professor of Law at Quinnipiac University School of Law where he has taught courses in Insurance Law. He is also a frequent lecturer nationally on insurance coverage topics.
