

Anna M. Perry comes to SDV with an extensive background in insurance coverage after working as a broker for nine years. She has a wealth of experience in contract reviews, insurance program evaluations, and policy coverage analysis.

Since joining SDV, she has expanded her practice by helping clients to obtain industry-leading coverage to meet their business needs. She has experience representing policyholders from pre-litigation claims disputes and through litigation under a variety of coverages including Commercial General Liability, Excess Liability, Builder's Risk, Professional Liability, and Representations and Warranties.

By combining her insurance brokerage background with her legal career, Anna is well equipped to advise her clients on all aspects of risk management. She works with her clients to develop and improve their approach to risk management and has expertise in contractual risk transfer mechanisms, insurance program placements, and managing claims through final resolution.

Anna attended law school at night while working full-time at a large insurance brokerage firm in the construction services group. While in law school, she was a member of Phi Delta Phi, an International Legal Honor Society and the oldest legal organization in continuous existence in the U.S., which recognizes academic and professional excellence.

Anna resides in Massachusetts with her husband, three children, and two dogs. In her free time, she enjoys reading, going to the beach, playing the piano, and taking walks.
