

Susana Arce is an Associate in the firm's Southeast office where she focuses her practice on representing policyholders facing complex insurance coverage issues. Prior to beginning her career as an insurance coverage attorney, Susana worked on the SDV team as a Law Clerk and graduated from the firm's Summer Associate program.

Prior to joining the SDV team, Susana graduated cum laude from the University of Florida Levin College of Law. There, she was the recipient of the Governor's Scholarship. She also served as the President of the Tax Moot Court, was a Teaching Assistant for Artificial Intelligence, Technology, and the Law, and served as Secretary for the Law Association for Women. Susana was an active participant in the Lationo Law Student Association. She earned a spot on the University of Florida's Dean's List for five consecutive semesters.

Susana is originally from Colombia and is fluent in Spanish. Outside of work, you can find Susana cycling, learning Italian, or at the beach.
